Regatta Tomorrow Renews Old Rivalry

Myrtle and Healan Clubs Again To Struggle For Supremacy---Both
Crews Are Trained to The Minute

Tomorrow is Regatta Day.

The old rivalry of the Healanis and the Myrtles will be renewed, and the fight of a dozen years will be on again. The crews are trained to the minute. Both are resting today, confident of taking off the honors.

Tomorrow is the holiday peculiar to Hawaii alone—the really, truly national holiday, and one which has always proved very dear to the Honolulu sport-lovers.

Eight times out of twelve years past the Myrtle senior crew has captured first honors, and the old Myrtle seniors of 1897 hold the record for the course, with 9:48. Can the Healanis break their winning streak? That is the great question to be decided tomorrow.

Last year the regatta presented a fine spectacle, and it is proposed to make the day as great a success this time, though one great and very important change has been made—the junior races have been cut out, and the time occupied by the sports will probably be confined to half a day.

This is a great innovation. It will confine the races which are to be between the rival clubs to the senior and freshmen 6-oar events, and two double-oar races. Hitherto, the junior races have been considered a secondary in interest only to the senior races, and a careful record has been kept of their outcome, as of that of the senior events.

The crews are:

Healan Freshman
Eddie Fernandez, stroke; E. Andrews, 5; A. May, 4; Shanton, 3; Soquet, 2; Hillyard, 1; Ben Clark, coxswain.

Healan Senior
Carlos, stroke; Henry Rose, 5; M. Robinson, 4; Joe Kamakua, 3; D. Sherwood, 2; R. Fuller, 1; Ben Clark, coxswain.

Myrtle Freshman
Hedemann, stroke; J. O'Brien, 5; Kales, 4; L. Kerr, 3; Zeigler, 2; Myhre, 1; L. Hough, coxswain.

Myrtle Senior
F. Bechert, stroke; G. Schaefer, 5; C. Padaken, 4; David Center, 3; Paul Schmidt, 2; R. Chillingworth, 1; L. Hough, coxswain.

The events as listed for the day are:

- 1—Whaleboat; $20.
- 2—Senior barge; $25 cup.
- 3—Six paddle canoe; $30 and $15.
- 4—Freshman barge; $25 cup.
- 5—Four paddle canoe; $20 and $10.
- 6—Senior pair oar; $20 cup.
- 7—Four paddle canoe (modern); $20 and $10.
- 8—Junior pair oar; $20 cup.
- 9—Sailing canoe (old); $15 and $10.
- 10—Sailing canoe (modern); $15 and $10.

Races open to all; no entry fees. All rowing races to be governed by the racing rules of the Hawaiian Rowing Association.

Each entry shall include the name of the boat, or, if it has none, the name of the person who enters it.

There must be at least three boats started before a second prize will be awarded.

Entries opened at 8 a. m. Tuesday, Sept. 15, at the Hawaiian News Co., Alexander Young, building, and closed Thursday at 12 m.

Following is a record of the outcome of the regattas of the past since the day has been set aside for these sports:

MOOHEAUS VS. LOCAL TEAM TOMORROW

Hiloites Bring With Them
a Real Star
Pitcher

Tomorrow and Sunday afternoons, the Moheaus, crack team of Hilo, will play baseball at the Park with the All-Oahu, a picked team of the big league, captained by Eddie Fernandez.

The Moheaus are expected to arrive tomorrow morning on the Mauna Kea. Since the sending of terms by the local league, nothing has been heard from the Hilo bunch, and it is inferred that silence gives consent.

The game tomorrow is on for 3 o'clock, at Baseball Park—while the game of the following day, which is to be played at 3:30 o'clock, will mark the last of baseball activity at the park this season.

The locals will play tomorrow as follows: Lyman, c.; Ruter, p.; Fernandez, 1b.; Vannatta, 2b.; Bushnell, 3b.; Miller, ss.; H. Bruns, lf.; En Sue, cf.; McKenzie, rf.

On Sunday, the line-up will be switched around, the following men playing: Soares, c.; Joy, p.; Fernandez, 1b.; Vannatta, 2b.; Bushnell, 3b.; Jim Williams, ss.; Harry Bruns, lf.; En Sue, cf.; Olmos, rf.

The Moheaus, who have been taking all the foliage of victory at Hilo, bring with them a good deal of confidence that they will be able to do things to the locals, mixed with a pitcher who is likely to give the big league of Honolulu something to think over for a while. This pitcher is named Williams. He is the man who showed up creditably against the Spalding bunch, and has dazzled some of the Honolulu players who have worked against him at Hilo. Williams is good, and no mistake, and will be one of the factors of the game.

NO BOXERS AT BOAT HOUSE

Owing to objections made to the boxers training at the boat house, Reilly and Nelson have both gone elsewhere for training quarters. Reilly is working out at the Orpheum, and Nelson has gone to the Hotel Baths.

Professor Pete Barron will train neither man.

Young Nelson Is Sturdy Boy With Fine Ring Record Here

Young Nelson, the boy who will meet Charlie Reilly in the ring at the Orpheum on October 3d, now figures as one of the most uniformly successful and reliable boxers who has been in the local game. With a record which reaches back into the former halcyon days of the sport here, he is at present picked as the man who, before all others, can represent the best of Hawaiian talent in the ring against Reilly, one of the best of his class on the Coast.

Nelson won all his bouts here in the time the game flourished before, with the exception of one memorable go, when he lost out to Jack McFar-den. He states that he gave away weight this time, and accounts for his one defeat in this way. He had all other opponents easily outclassed, winning mostly by the knockout route.

Last spring he reappeared in the ring with the sailor boys of the Battle Fleet and of the Special Service Squadron, and showed up so well that there has since been a great demand for his appearance at all times. He has a good wallop and is strong. He takes care of himself as strictly as possible. He never touches a little nip of anything, and eschews tobacco. He has barrels of wind and a cool head. All of this looks mighty good for his chances.

Any fan in Honolulu at present knows the man against whom Nelson is pitted. Charlie Reilly is the cleverest boxer who has ever appeared in this city at any time. He has probably not met here any boy of Nelson's build and style of milling, however, and, as Reilly has figured mostly in the 4- and 6-round game on the Coast he probably has not met many long-distance, stay-on-his-stamina men such as Nelson is, in his experience there.

It will be a supreme test for the two men, so opposite in their style of boxing, and both so cool and game under all circumstances.

Young Nelson was formerly a Bulletin newsboy and one of the best hustlers in the business.

Jury May Ask To Go To Hilo

On the grounds that they will not be able to arrive at a true and rightful verdict, without seeing the land in question, the twelve Jurymen sitting in the United States District Court in the condemnation suit against L. A. Andrews by the United States, may make a request to Judge Dole this afternoon that they be taken to Hilo. This matter was discussed to considerable extent yesterday afternoon, and it was thought that a request would be made to the Judge this morning, but as the examination of Mr. Andrews on the witness stand went on all morning without interruption, nothing has so far been done.

But it is not definitely decided yet, for the complexity of the case is such that a hung jury will be the probable result unless the Jurymen are given the opportunity to view the land in question. Andrews claims that a certain small tract of land which is wanted by the Government for a right of way, is worth considerable more than the United States is willing to give. There is hardly any manner of proving this, on account of the fact that some of the things which are given a high value by Andrews, are named at a much lower value by Breckons. In this connection an interesting bit of repartee occurred between Andrews and Breckons yesterday afternoon. Andrews was endeavoring to explain a certain question to Breckons, in answer to a question, and when he had finished, Breckons stated that he didn't understand any of it.

"Then I suppose I must be a d—n fool!" exploded Andrews.

"Well, I guess we agree on that point, all right, all right," calmly replied the United States District Attorney.

The Jurymen request to be taken to Hilo, their wishes will probably be gratified and the party will leave for the Rainy city on this evening's boat.
